LOVE SONG.

I ken a bonnie sheltered dell,
Fra mortals' wanderings far awa'
Whaur Flora loves the maist to dwell
And watch her tartest offspring's blaw,
I ken a lass wha day and night
Fu' lang has been my every care,
And fairer Sarah to my sight
Than ever a flower that opened there

Yestereen in yon rich spacious ha'
When to the violin's witchin' power
Licht Mirth and pleasure graces twa,
Joined in to pass the evening hour—
Tho' maist who circled roond the place
Truth might declare them heavenly fair I
Yet aye I thocht a much loved face
The reigning queen o' beauty there

Yet better joys ha' to love
For a' its charms some day may flee
But Sarah's heart is guid and true
And kindly aye she thinks o' me
Tho' I was doomed to cross the sea
And roam yon desert bleak and bare
A paradise it yet would be
Were only Sarah wi' me there

MISTRESS OF TWO HEARTS

Dr Hooper returned sadly to his home He had been trying to persuade Judge Harrison to receive his granddaughter, the child of a union that had set the father against the son who had married a German singer

A dark eyed girl met the kind old doctor as he was entering his own door

No use he said shaking his head sadly He has a heart of granite and your cousin likewise

He will not take me?

No

Hilda Harrison shut her teeth tightly together Then I must make my own way

He looked at her curiously Well any way you shall come in while my wife gets you a cup of coffee

Now then what are you going to do?

I don't quite know

Can you teach?

Oh dear no she replied shaking her head decidedly I never had a chance to study much

Then there's nothing left for you to do but to go into domestic service

I would like a place to morrow doctor if I could get a good home and decent wages said Hilda quickly

Good said Dr Hooper That is the right spirit child I don't fear but you'll make your way But I think I can see something a little more promising ahead for you than that

What is it doctor?

I noticed the way you took care of your poor father Hilda in his last illness I thought then that you would make a good nurse—I think so now There is an opening in St Francesca's hospital A good home and a dollar a day

As nurse doctor

As nurse

And I should see you sometimes?

Frequently—twice a week at least

Hilda pondered a second or two and then came forward with glistening eyes and red lips apart

Doctor said she I will try it

A year had passed and Dr Wallace sent word that a nurse was wanted for a small pox patient in the city The Sister Superior of the St Francescans looked dubiously at her woman

Who will go said she—and Hilda Harrison stepped forward

I will said she I have no fear of the contagion and I want to add to my experience

So little Hilda packed her bag and went

The housekeeper of the great Fifth avenue palace was wringing her hands half terrified out of her senses the other servants had taken precipitate flight

And Miss Lenox went this morning said she I think she might have stayed

Who is Miss Lenox questioned innocent Hilda

The old gentleman's granddaughter that he has brought up and petted like a second lamb said Mrs Hurst Oh, the ingratitude of some folks And if Judge Harrison has—

Hilda looked up quickly from the bottles of carbolic acid she was unpacking

Is this Judge Harrison's house? said she

Why of course it is answered Mrs Hurst Didn't you know?

No I did not know Hilda said But of course it makes no difference whose house it is

Who are you? Judge Harrison asked himself as a light foot crossed the threshold

I am the nurse from St Francesca's They call me Hilda

Hilda what

Never mind my other name said the young girl They call me Hilda—and you are not to talk and excite yourself

Do you know you are running a great risk?

It is my business to run risks

Three weeks elapsed The crisis of the disease was past The old man weakened indeed and sadly disfigured was able once more to sit up in his easy chair and Hilda who had watched over him with a vigilance and tenderness which he fully appreciated was arranging fresh flowers in a vase on the table

Hilda said he slowly where has my granddaughter Marian been all this time?

She went away sir, when you were first taken ill She was afraid of the disease

And left me?

And left you sir

There was gratitude he muttered bitterly and when is she coming back?

Hilda laid down her roses and looked with pathetic feeling eyes at him

She will not come back at all sir she answered We dared not tell you before but—her flight was in vain She died of small pox last week

The old man turned away with a smothered groan

Hilda said he you will stay with me You will not leave me alone I know who you are I recognized your name when you first came and you have looked at me with your father's eyes many a time since Hilda I think God has sent you to me

Oh grandpapa And Hilda knelt weeping beside his chair scarcely able to believe that his loving arms were around her neck his tears dropping on her brow Oh dear dear grandpapa I have so longed for some one to love—for some one to love me

Thus Judge Harrison received his granddaughter and when four months later she became Mrs George West the old lawyer blessed the union by giving them a handsome dowry

TUESDAY EVE., NOV. 20, 1888.

THE all-absorbing question in Chicago just now is. "Will McGarigle come back?"

MINNEAPOLIS has about fifty men who are entitled to rank as millionaires, and more than one hundred more who have fortunes of $200,000 or over.

THE tariff on Southern rice, instead of being over 100 per cent., should be about the same as that on Northern wheat, which is 20 cents a bushel, or say, 20 per cent.

NEW YORK CITY reports 2,195 new building improvements for the first eight months of the present year. Minneapolis building record for the same period shows 3,232 new structures.

THE Prohibition vote in Massachusetts this year was less than that of four years ago. In no Northern State does the vote of that party in 1888 appear to reach the highest figures previously attained.

MR. T. V. POWDERLY, having been tendered a re-election as Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, has consented to accept on condition that he shall have the choosing of the Executive Board of the order.

MRS. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, who was thought to be dying a month or two ago, is now rapidly convalescing and bids fair to live for years longer. She is very weak, and has to use a cane when walking.

CLEVELAND'S plurality in Missouri was only 25,612. Four years ago he had 30,-900. Blaine's vote in Missouri was 202,-929, and Harrison's was 235,025. In the city of St. Louis Harrison received 23,-691 votes and Cleveland 27,401.

CHAIRMAN ELLIS of Kansas claimed Kansas as a "doubtful" or "probably Democratic" State. It gives 82,000 Republican majority. It was on such "claims" as this that the Democrats lost $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 in bets and won nothing.

FROM all over the country come complaints of the shiftless methods that prevail in the postal service, and many are the congratulations indulged in that the near future will see a marked change. The fact that the same complaints come from so many different directions shows that there is good ground for criticism.

A DEMOCRATIC newspaper wants the Democratic Congress, "while it has the power," to cut up Texas into three or four states. The difficulty with that programme is that the Democrats do not happen to "have the power." The United States Senate is Republican, and even in the House there is force enough to block any Democratic partisan and sectional legislation.

A CONFERENCE of the Illinois State Board of Charities and other persons actively interested in charitable and reformatory institutions and works, will be held in Chicago Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Among the speakers announced are ex-President Rutherford B. Hayes and Major R. W. McClaughry, the Warden of the Joliet State Penitentiary.

COMPLETE official returns from Tennessee give Cleveland and Thurman 13,517 majority over all competitors. Complete official returns from Arkansas give Cleveland and Thurman a clear majority of 15,188 over all. Iowa's official plurality for Harrison and Morton is 31,600. Of the aggregate votes cast for members of Congress in Indiana, the Republicans have a clear majority of 1,591.

CINCINNATI'S Centennial Exposition fell $350,000 short of paying expenses. The Directors have called for 35 per cent. of a guarantee fund of $1,000,000 which they were wise enough to secure before embarking in the enterprise. The guarantors are kicking, but they must pay up. The largest amount demanded of any one firm is about $7,000, or 35 per cent. of $20,000.

THE admission of Dakota to Statehood will undoubtedly take place in the first regular session of the Fifty-first Congress. The people of the Territory expect it, and they will hardly be disappointed, even though the Republican majority in the House be only two or three, as the Democrats predict it will be. The Dakotans have already formally expressed their desire to come in as two states, and this also they will be gratified.

AN interview with Gen. Fisk, printed in the Voice, explains the reason of the Democratic success in New Jersey. Gen. Fisk says:

> The large plurality for Cleveland in New Jersey may be accounted for chiefly by the fact that Prohibitionists who had been Democrats went back to their old party (Democratic) in order to protest against such a ticket. And so in many other states.

Of course, Prohibitionists who have been Democrats are very apt to "go back to their old party" on election day. But it is gratifying to have Gen. Fisk's testimony to the fact that so many of them, masquerade as Prohibitionists, and their vote as Democrats, not only in New Jersey but "in many other states."

The Vote Outside of Cook County.

The official returns to the Secretary of State from every county in the state except Cook and Lake counties give Harrison 282,376 votes, Cleveland 262,036, Fisk 18,809, Streeter 6,707. Harrison's plurality in 100 counties reported is 20,337. Returns received from every county in the State except Cook give for the Banking law 230,142, against 128,102; majority for the law 111,040. Fifer has outside of Cook county 283,867, Palmer 267,853; Fifer's plurality outside of Cook county, 17,044. The official vote in Cook county will probably not be known until next week.

A MODERN Samson has appeared in the person of Charles H. Samson, of Germany, who in an exhibition in New York, broke 125 thicknesses of steel-wire cable, or in all 1,000 strands, by the expansion of his chest. He also broke a steel trace chain, fastening it about his chest and bursting its links like so much glass. One-pipe an inch in diameter he bends into shows by striking the pipe across his left arm. He has successfully pulled in a tug-of-war against twelve strong men. He can slay a steer with a blow of his fist, and has medals to show that he accomplished this feat in the presence of Emperors William and Francis Joseph.

Special Offer.

From now until November 20th we will sell a full-size Gray Fur Robe for $5.60, and an Imitation Black Bear for $6.30.

nov6-d2w J. G. STARR & SON

THERE is no limit to the hostility of the English papers to every form of American industry. Everything that Americans undertake to do, of course, is better done than anything of the same kind or character is done in England, and therefore the American article supersedes that produced abroad. Of late the Yankees have been trying their skill in a new direction, and the success they have achieved in it has caused a howl of anguish to go up from one end of England to another. The latest Yankee venture is in the matrimonial market, and the way our American girls rake in the English husbands is a terror to the would-be mothers-in-law of the old country. Since the election, even, a member of parliament has come over to fall a victim to one of our American princesses. And the Pall Mall Gazette laments the event as bitterly as though it were a Democratic paper commenting on the recent land-slide. It says:

> "The advent of an American girl into English society, at first, was a curiosity. It soon became a incident. It is now assuming the dimensions of a menace. Before long it will be recognized as a calamity. Of all the forms of competition there is none so deadly as this. We can stand our farmers being ruined by American corn. We can listen unmoved to the wails of grain-growers made bankrupt by the influx of American beef. But the American girl is too much. Already we hear the murmur and the drawing-room growl of the despairing Belgravian mother whose sons, season after season, American girls sweep down upon the most eligible partners, as if out our native girls out before the very eyes of their distracted parents."

Strange, what a spite they have at us!

SENATOR QUAY, chairman of the National Republican Committee, authorizes the following statement of the situation in the lower branch of the next Congress: "We have the House of Representatives by a majority of five certainly, and possibly by nine on the official count of congressional districts. As to the Democratic threats that Democratic Governors of States will refuse to certify the election of Republicans to the Clerk of the House, and the latter will refuse to place our people on the roll, we do not care what the Democratic Governors or the Clerk of the House may do. They are not dealing with children and old women. The Republican party will hold with a nailed hand all that it fairly won on Nov. 6th."

AND now comes Dr. Brodus, of St. Louis, who was a volunteer physician during the yellow fever scourge at Jacksonville, Fla., who says that the disease is not contagious. Whatever scientific facts he may have upon which to base this conclusion, the people who have lived through such visitations as the present one in Florida are pretty unanimous in the opinion that yellow fever is contagious enough to justify all who can in getting just as far away from its presence as possible. It may not be contagious, but the plain people evidently believe that it is "ketchin," to say the least.

AS to the complexion of the next House of Representatives the people would do well to pin their faith to the statement of Senator Quay, who says, "We have the house by a majority of five, certainly, and possibly by nine on the official count." Col. Quay has not been in the habit of making windy statements and modifying them afterwards. He does not speak until he knows what he is talking about, and then he has nothing to take back. And that is the kind of man the people take stock in.

As corroborative of the letter of John Archer which we we published the other day we find a letter from Birmingham, Ala., in the Indianapolis Journal of Monday, written by a Southern Republican, who says that he is a native of the state. He asks that something be done to give the people of that state a free election and a fair count. He says the white Republicans of the gulf states cannot much longer stand "the merciless rule of the intolerant and proscriptive Democracy." He says they "act on the principle that no one who opposes them has any rights which they are bound to respect." It is the same old story, and yet Northern Democrats have the gall to deny it.

MR. CLEVELAND is doing what he can for his friends during the few weeks of power which remain to him. The Spanish mission being vacant he has appointed Hon. Perry Belmont, of New York, to the place. The young millionaire will hardly get to Madrid before he will have to bid a long farewell to all his greatness and introduce some Republican as his successor. But if Mr. Perry Belmont, and his father, August Belmont, are willing to square accounts with Mr. Cleveland by accepting a brief honors of a place that must be given up before the occupant has had time to get warm in it nobody else has any right to complain.

HARRISON'S plurality in Pennsylvania according to the official returns, is 79,-779. His plurality in Kansas is 78,742, with five counties yet to hear from which it is estimated will increase the showing to at least 80,000, and thus place the Sunflower state at the head of the Republican column. Only one of the 101 Kansas counties was carried by the Democrats.

STRAINS and external injuries are the chief causes of weak ankles and joints. By the free use of Salvation Oil a cure will be effected in a short time.

"And there was a mask ball that night," yes, and they kept it up pretty lively until morning. You see they were'nt afraid of the early frost knowing that all the druggists keep supplied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the old reliable remedy.

United States Supreme Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Supreme Court, Chief Justice Fuller, yesterday delivered decisions in the First Judicial Court of inquiry of the United States, et al. against Frank W. Dewalt, who was convicted upon an information of embezzlement and making false entries as the president of a National bank, and sentenced and committed to the penitentiary for ten years. He was subsequently discharged on habeas corpus proceedings on the ground that the crime in question was an infamous one for which he could not be held to answer on information, but only on an indictment by a grand jury.

The United States, on appeal, contended that a crime is an infamous which is not subject to the penalty of hard labor. The Chief Justice states that a contrary ruling was rendered in the case of Mackin against the United States, when it was held by Justice Gray: "That at the present day imprisonment in a State prison or penitentiary, with or without hard labor, is an infamous punishment."

The Chief Justice said that the Mackin case was decided on the one under consideration. Three cases also rendered decisions in the following cases:

Case No. 24: Harriett Brown, appellant, vs. the Gurnee Trust & Safe Deposit Company; appeal from the Circuit Court for the Northern district of Illinois. Decree affirmed with costs. Opinion by Mr. Justice Lamar.

No. 43: Lenoir Bank, plaintiff in error, vs. the Bissell Carriage Association of St. Louis. In error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Arkansas. Dismissed for the want of jurisdiction. Opinion by Mr. Justice Harlan.

No. 69: Thos. J. Coe, well, et al., plaintiffs in error, vs. Samuel W. Fordyce. In error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Arkansas. Dismissed for the want of jurisdiction. Opinion by Mr. Justice Harlan.

No. 99: Chas. Cornelius, plaintiff in error, vs. Catharine Magelina Kassel. In error to the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin. Judgment affirmed with costs. Opinion by Mr. Justice Field.

No. 57: Edward C. Marshall et al., appellants, versus the United States. Appeal from the Court of Claims. Judgment affirmed. Announced by Mr. Chief-Justice Fuller. Mr. Justice Harlan dissenting.

Jno. C. Rutherford, of Macon, Ga., Edward P. Gates, of Kansas City, Mo., and Timothy J. Campbell, of New York City, were admitted to practice.

Major-General Schofield's Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Major-General Schofield, in his annual report, says: The past year has been one of peace among the Indians, formerly somewhat troublesome in the Division of the Pacific, and in the Division of the Missouri. With the single exception of the suppression of disorder among the Crow Indians, the use of troops has been limited to the prevention of possible trouble among Indian tribes.

The system of practice of the artillery with heavy seacoast guns has been steadily developed, and is now adopted for the entire seacoast of the country. He believes the troops will be fully prepared to handle effectively the weapons of modern construction and of the largest caliber as soon as such weapons can be made ready to be placed in their hands. A moderate increase in the numerical strength of the force to handle the new guns is indispensable.

Referring to fortifications, the General says, the time and circumstances seem peculiarly favorable to placing the seacoast and frontiers of the country in a state of security here consistent with the dignity of a great and proud, though just and peaceful nation.

Reference is made to the impairment of the efficiency of the army through absence of officers from their regiments or corps. He thinks that the service would be greatly benefited if such officers as are disabled could be retired and their places filled by young and active men. If the retired list be temporarily increased, in a few years most of the great number of officers who were disabled in the late war will have passed away, and the list which now seems large will have become greatly reduced in numbers.

The reduction in pay of officers on detached duty is no longer necessary, and results in relative favoritism to the few officers who have other means of support besides their pay.

There were 2,476 desertions from the army during the past year, and the average desertions for each of the last five years were 3,103 per cent. of the entire enlisted strength, or 51.5 per cent. during the whole period. General Schofield recommends that the reward for the arrest of deserters be increased to $50, to be taken out of his enlisted pay, and that it be made practicable in time of peace for an enlisted man to dissolve his contract of enlistment in a manner honorable to himself and just to the Government by obtaining a discharge with forfeiture of so much of his retained pay as may be necessary to reimburse the United States for expenses.

The Aqueduct Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—In the aqueduct tunnel investigation yesterday J. E. Quackenbush, one of the contractors, testified that he had seen the defective packing and thought that it was done through the laziness and pure meanness of the workmen. The packers evidently concealed the shoddy work from the contractors' superintendents. Witness said that careless work could not be profitable to the contractors or sub-contractors—it simply gave the lazy workmen more time to loaf. The progress of the work was not hastened by doing imperfect work.

The next witness was J. H. Kerlin, principal inspector of the aqueduct tunnel. Witness discovered several pieces of bad work, which he described to the court. The guilty parties were always discharged when discovered, and such bad work as was found was always torn out and replaced by good solid construction. The inspectors' explanations were so satisfactory that witness was not suspicious of the continuance of rotten work.

The Congressional tunnel investigating committee decided yesterday to begin taking testimony next Monday at ten o'clock at the capital. The sessions will probably be secret.

Adjutant-General Drum's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Adjutant-General Drum, in his annual report to Major-General Schofield, calls attention to the evil of desertion, which he says results principally from dissatisfaction with army life and its restraints, restlessness with recklessness of obligations assumed, and a desire to secure transportation to distant and supposed favorable points in the West. Desertion, he says, can never be eradicated, but may be greatly lessened by the adoption of remedial measures, such as the reduction of the term of service from five to three years, and the right to purchase discharge.

During the past year there were 24,710 applicants for enlistment, 18,017 of whom were rejected.

The Adjutant General says that notwithstanding every effort has been made, so far as the recruiting appropriations would warrant, to secure the necessary recruits to fill up the army, it is still more than eighteen hundred below the authorized strength of 25,000 enlisted men, and many of the regiments are greatly reduced.

A Change of Policy Denied.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Treasury Department officials deny the truth of the report that there has been any change in the policy of the Administration or Department toward the Alaska seal fisheries. There has been no relaxation this season of their watchfulness in Behring sea. The revenue cutter Rush has been cruising in those waters near the seal islands all through the season. There has been no seizures of vessels for catching seals this season, they say, for the simple reason that none have been discovered. The latest report from the islands is dated October 14. Near the close of the season, and up to that date, not a single vessel had been seen trespassing in those waters.

Behind the Times in Learning the News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Navy Department is advised of the arrival of the Boston at Port-au-Prince on the 6th inst., but no special report has yet been received from Captain Ramsey about the condition of affairs in Hayti.

At the State Department the latest advices received were from United States Minister Thompson, who, under date of November 3, reports the seizure and confiscation of the American ship Haytien Republic by the Haytien courts. Mr. Thompson had put in a vigorous protest against this action of the Haytien Government.

Cabinet Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Star says: "In Cabinet gossip Mr. Dingley is being spoken of with growing frequency for Secretary of the Navy. The prophets still hold the State Department open to Senator Sherman, and it is pretty generally accepted as among the most probable things that John Wanamaker will be Postmaster-General. If Sherman goes into the Cabinet, it is said to be likely that Mr. McKinley would take his place in the Senate."

The Corean Minister Starts for Home.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Pak Chung Yang, the Corean Minister, accompanied by three members of his suite, took the Baltimore & Ohio train yesterday morning for Chicago, en route to San Francisco, where the Minister will sail for home.

Another Trip to Washington.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Collector Magone made another trip to Washington yesterday, "to talk over customs matters generally with Secretary Fairchild," it was stated.

Order Restored.

SHERBROOK, Que., Nov. 20.—Order has been restored on the Hereford railway. A force of railway employes has regained possession of the rolling stock seized by the strikers. It is stated that two Italians were shot in the melee by the company's officers. The engines were brought back to West Stewartson. About one hundred of the strikers took the train at North Stratford yesterday morning for Boston, and there will be no further disturbance.

Captured a Cap tailat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—It was stated in uptown theatrical circles yesterday that Miss Maud Harrison, the well-known and popular actress, and Mr. Jas. D. Carson, the Chicago cap tailat, were married in this city Sunday. It is doubtful whether Miss Harrison will continue to act.

Found Dead in the Reservoir.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 20.—At noon yesterday the dead body of Jas. Carlin, colored, aged seven years, was found in the Bedford Avenue reservoir. Almost the entire lower part of the city is supplied with water for all purposes from this basin. Cause of death unknown.

Killed in a Quarrel with Unknown Men.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—T. F. Dunn, aged twenty-six years, of No. 68 Broadway, quarreled, Sunday evening, with some unknown men on the corner of Broadway and Fulton street. Dunn was knocked down and severely kicked, suffering injuries from which he died early yesterday morning. His assailants have not been arrested.

Will Appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The petition of the American Cushman Telephone Company for a rehearing of its famous suit against the American Bell Telephone Company was denied by Judge Blodgett yesterday. The case will now go to the United States Supreme Court on appeal.

Killed by a Cable Car.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Charles Radcliffe, while attempting to board a moving cable car, yesterday afternoon, slipped and fell beneath the wheels of the car and was crushed to death. Radcliffe had an armful of grocery packages, which he was conveying to his family consisting of a wife and two children.

Cheap Murder.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Jake Lorrucki and Mike Edvrack, Hungarians, were arrested here last night charged with the murder of a Hungarian named Berle Kaszck, near Hazelton, Sunday night. The victim was murdered for three dollars that he had on his person.

Ended His Term of Imprisonment.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 20.—John Hodell, a native of Switzerland, aged thirty-two, a life-prisoner in the State prison, committed suicide yesterday morning in his cell in Weathersfield.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

—Annie Schotts, of Chicago, quarreled with her lover Sunday night, and committed suicide by shooting herself through the head.

—Robert Garrett's physicians have given it out that their distinguished patient can not live much longer.

—Mr. Balfour, British Chief Secretary for Ireland, is confined to his bed with an attack of chills and fever.

—Major Henry J. Farnsworth, Assistant Inspector-General, who went to Ft. Monroe, Va., for medical treatment, died there at 11 a. m. yesterday.

—In another week the town of Wabash, Ind., will be illuminated with natural gas, the pipe line for which has already nearly reached the city limits.

—Justice Matthews continues to steadily improve in health, and it is now thought probable that he may be able to take his place on the bench again before the court adjourns in May next.

—Five of the Minneapolis (Minn.) flour mills, representing 7,000 barrels daily capacity, or twenty-five per cent. of the city's daily capacity, are now shut down. To this number there will be several additions this week.

—The Ale Brewers' Association of New York and New Jersey, threaten to lock out all their union employes unless the boycott on Daniel Stevenson's ale and porter brewery is removed before the 23d.

—Hon. Solomon Schutz, a wealthy maltster and prominent Democrat of Buffalo, N. Y., is suffering from a stroke of paralysis. If a recurrence of the attack is avoided, physicians think he will recover.

—A new Anarchist society, called the "Arbeiter Bund," was organized in Chicago last Sunday, for the avowed purpose of reviving anarchistic agitation among the unthinking laborers of that city.

—The auction sale of the personal effects of Lord Sackville, the recently-deposed British Minister, took place at the legation in Washington yesterday, and realized good prices for the articles sold.

—The body of Henry W. King, Jr., who was killed in Omaha Saturday by Mrs. Beechler, arrived in Chicago on the Burlington fast train at ten o'clock yesterday morning. The date of the funeral has not yet been fixed.

—It is stated that all of the old employes of the "Q" road who went out on strike last February and are still unemployed—about one-third of the entire number—are soon to be restored to their old positions.

—Later reports from the soldiers' orphan school at McAllisterville, Juanita County, Pa., confirm the rumor of ravages of typhoid fever among the pupils of that school. It is known that a number of cases exist, estimated at from twenty-five to forty.

—At ten o'clock yesterday morning the sides of a sewer in process of construction in Pittsburgh, Pa., caved in, instantly killing Joseph Sands, contractor, and Charles Baker, a bricklayer. Several other workmen were caught by the fall, but escaped.

—Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick, of Bridgeport, Conn., attempted to light a fire yesterday morning, when the head fell off the match and ignited her clothing. Mrs. Fitzpatrick and her father, who tried to save her, were fatally burned.

—Sam Holmes, a well-known planter of Crawford County, Ark., went on a spree Saturday night. On Sunday, while drunk, he attacked his sister-in-law, a young woman named Mary Thomas. The girl, driven to desperation, grabbed a gun and fired at him, inflicting a wound from which he died Sunday night.

—The public school building of Carrollton, Ill., a large three-story brick structure, was destroyed, together with all its contents, by fire early Sunday morning. Loss, $5,000; insurance, $20,000. The fire was doubtless the work of an incendiary.

—The British steamer Texan, which arrived at New Orleans Sunday, brings news from Port-au-Prince that the United States steamer Boston had arrived at that port and had made a demand for the release of the steamer Haytien Republic, which was about to be acceded to when the Texan left.

—The river coal operators of Pennsylvania are considering the question of closing all the mines in the Monongahela valley for six months, because the market is overstocked and coal is now selling at five cents per bushel, the lowest price in many years.

—It has just leaked out that Wm. J. Chisholm, son of Wm. Chisholm, of the great shovel works, and a millionaire, living on Euclid avenue, Cleveland, O., was married about a month ago to Bridget Barlow, a cook in the Chisholm kitchen.

—The Dowager Empress Frederick of Prussia arrived at Port Victoria, yesterday, on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The Queen and Princesses Beatrice and Louise started from Windsor, yesterday morning, to greet the Empress upon her arrival.

—Ed Higgins, a school teacher of Macon, Ill., aged twenty-two years, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself with a 22-caliber target rifle. He left a letter for his mother stating that he had more trouble than he could live under.

—The remains of the young woman found dying with a broken skull, on Grand Boulevard, Chicago, Saturday night, have been identified as Eva Mitchell, nineteen years of age, who lived with her brother at No. 621 Thirty-ninth street. She bore an excellent reputation, and the police are certain that she was murdered.

—The New York Journal of Commerce, the organ of the business community of New York City, and politically Democratic, declares in an elaborate leader against the proposed continuance of the tariff agitation, and urges the Democrats to join the Republicans in abolishing all internal revenue tax.

—Four men, supposed to be Bohemians, employed in guarding Wm. B. Astor's property, at Bayswater, L. I., went out on the bay Sunday afternoon. Their boat was upset and three of the men were drowned. Two of the bodies were recovered.

—A serious epidemic of diphtheria is raging in Wabash, Ind., and already a dozen deaths have occurred within a comparatively short time. The malady was at first thought by local physicians to be membranous croup, and was so treated, but on a consultation it was decided that it was diphtheria.

—It is said that Canadian vessels have been taking seals in Behring sea all the season unmolested, although the Alaska Commercial Company has made repeated protests to the authorities at Washington in regard to the matter. It is thought that secret instructions, based upon a change in policy, have been forwarded to the American cruisers, which last year were so active in making arrests.

Opium Smugglers Arrested.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The three Chinamen and two Americans who were arrested Saturday night for smuggling opium from Canada to the United States were brought before the United States Commissioner yesterday morning. The Americans, Lund and Millinger, pleaded guilty to charges of conspiracy and smuggling, and the Chinamen pleaded not guilty. Bail was fixed at $3,000 each, in default of which the five culprits were taken to jail, and the examination adjourned until November 27. The Americans confessed that they were in the employ of the Chinamen, and were paid seventy-five cents for every opium package smuggled. The Chinamen protested that they had never seen Lund and Millinger before. Special Customs Agent Reynolds says that from ten to fifteen thousand dollars' worth of smuggled opium has been brought into this city by the syndicate.

A Churchman Promoted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Rev. Arthur J. Donnelly, of St. Michael's Church, this city, Vicar-General of this diocese, has been raised by the Pope to the dignity of domestic prelate, in recognition of his services to religion. The distinction entitles Father Donnelly to the rank of Rt. Rev. Mgr.

A Desperate Wife's Wicked Revenge.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Last evening while Patrick Durkins, a baggageman of the Pennsylvania railroad, sat at the supper table, his wife threw a bowl of vitriol in his face, burning out both his eyes, disfiguring his face and neck, and injuring him so much that he will probably die. His wife fled from the house and returned a few minutes later with an officer. When Durkins heard her coming, although he was blind and screaming with pain, he attacked and nearly killed her in spite of the policeman. The wife alleges ill-treatment, and Durkins' threat to put another woman in her place today. She was jailed, and Durkins sent to the hospital.

Miss White's Murderers.

BRAINTREE, Mass., Nov. 20.—It is now believed that another man was interested in the murder of Miss White besides the farm hand. A strange man had been seen around the place with the farm hand, Thompson, and a man answering his description was seen to take the eight o'clock train from South Braintree for Boston on the night of the murder. About three hundred and fifty dollars in coin were found in the house yesterday. The money was overlooked by the murderers.

The Michigander Wins.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 20.—The much-talked-of race between the yachts City of the Straits, of Detroit, and the Alice Enright, of Toledo, for a purse of $1,000, was sailed yesterday. The distance was fifteen miles. The City of the Straits won easily, coming in forty-five minutes ahead of the Enright. Captain Alex. McLeod, of the Detroit Evening News, sailed the City, while Captain Hepburn, of Toledo, acted in the same capacity for the local yacht.

Senator or Nothing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, who arrived here yesterday, says that he is in the field again for United States Senator for all he is worth, and there is no position in the Cabinet that he would accept. He has not seen General Harrison since the election, and knows nothing of the report that he had been offered a portfolio under the new Administration.

It would be a good thing all around, and would give the people a much-needed period of rest, if the politicians would now direct their attention to some new topic and give Gen. Harrison a chance to amuse himself in the privacy of his own library by writing down the names of the various cabinet expectants and arranging them into sets and combinations to his own satisfaction, and by allowing his excellent wife to practice a little at the art which she says has such charms for her—firing. There will be a good deal of that to do after the fourth of March, and it will not be china that will be fired, either.

Attempted Murder.

Carl Schubach, bar-tender for Louis Steinbach and formerly in the employ of Brewer, the baker, had a narrow escape last night shortly after 11 o'clock. At the corner of South Franklin and Washington street on his way home he was accosted by two strange men, who asked him where they could find Jasper street He told them, and started to go on his way, when one of the men insisted that Schubach should go with him to Jasper street Schubach refused, when the ruffian pulled out his knife and made several attempts to kill the young man, saying he would "cut his —— guts out.' Schubach, who was unarmed, dodged the blows, and finally the two men went off alone down Franklin street A partial description of the two men have been secured and the police are looking for them

The Concert.

The Mme Valda grand concert company appeared at the opera house last night under the management of Prof Olof Bull, of the Musical College faculty The audience while not nearly so large as the excellent character of the play merited, was made up of a fair representation of music loving people of the community A more thoroughly delighted audience never left the hall Every number on the liberal programme received one to two encores and each was well merited A more talented company of six people has never visited our city The prima donna was Mme Gonha Valda a Boston lady and wife of a Scotch lord, who has made an enviable reputation in the old country singing at Les Italiennes Paris and Covent Garden, London She is a gifted lady of queen-like appearance who is the possessor of a wonderful voice sweet in tone with the widest range and capable of the most difficult execution, as was displayed most charmingly last night in her classical and popular selections Her vocalization was a revelation The other vocalists were Mme Bulkley Hills, the favorite contralto of New York Mr Eugene Danckwardt a Swedish noble man and tenor, who has appeared in Copenhagen and Paris repeatedly before delighted audiences, and is now making a tour of America mainly for the novelty of the experience, while he has the satisfaction of being a bread winner Mr Walter A Hudson of New York, is the basso These artists like Mme Valda sang with dramatic effect and from the start won the sympathy and favor of the audience All are artists of the first class and rank with the best in the world on the concert stage The accompanist on the Knabe piano which by the way was patroned rather high was Signor Romaldo Sapio of Her Majesty's opera company Chevalier Antoine DeKontski court pianist to the Emperor of Germany, received an ovation from his Decatur admirers He is now past 72 years of age and he retains the vigor of his prime wonderfully, playing with the fire and perfection of his youth His selections were great treats to cultivated ears The trio Il Balen by Mme Valda, Mr Danckwardt and Mr Hudson was the gem of the evening earning an enthusiastic recall Prof Bull is being congratulated to day on the superior character of the entertainment Certainly a more artistic concert was never before offered our people He should secure the company for another visit

Miss Gregory at Britton

We clip the following from the Britton Digest, of Dakota which speaks of one of our former teachers in very complimentary terms

Among the many interesting exercises of the day at our recent Sabbath school convention the particularly pleasant feature was the children's greeting, by Miss May Gregory, lately of Decatur, Illinois This lady is endowed with talents for this line of work which few possess, and the best of all is she is not allowing her talents to rust

The Border Life Play

Harry Meredith's effective drama, 'Ranch 10' will be handsomely placed on the stage as the attraction for to morrow night at the opera house with Mr Clinton Hall The play has been seen here before, and ex ended notice is, therefore, unnecessary at this time Mr Hall, in the dual role of Hand Tom McClelland, the twin brothers is being heartily applauded for his painstaking efforts He is a most conscientious actor and identifies himself with his part so close is to make his acting realistic in the extreme Popular prices—25 50 and 75 cents

THE proceedings of the city council will be found on the fourth page of this issue

The MacCollin Company

This superior musical organization, so favorably known in Decatur, will give three fine entertainments at the opera house this week—Friday night Saturday afternoon and Saturday night—singing Bohemian Girl the first night, and closing with 'The Mikado' Saturday night At the matinee a well known opera will be given

The much talked of Carleton Opera company suffer by comparison with the MacCollin company, the latter company being superior in every department We have never seen an ensemble so complete in every detail Each and every artist strive but for one point—success Grand Rapids will never have another company to equal it—Telegram Herald

Purely Sensational.

The telegram from Springfield, Mo, stating that Dick Oglesby, the actor, was murdered on Oct 16 by the brother of a young woman the actor had betrayed at Cincinnati the past summer, is purely sensational The story is published in the Decatur morning papers of to-day It originates from an alleged detective named Davis, in the employ of the 'Frisco line running into Springfield, Mo The Decatur relatives of Dick have positive evidence that the cruel story is false. They know that Dick came to Decatur from Chicago on June 1st, and remained here until August 13, when he went to Monticello with the Maud Atkinson company, where he remained for a week going thence to Anamosa, Iowa, where he filled a brief engagement with a company He then went to Omaha, Neb, where he took electric baths for rheumatism He then joined the Barry comedy company at Cherokee, Kansas, and rehearsed and played engagements with it Less than a week after his connection with the Barry company in the west he was mysteriously murdered near Marionville Mo where he was found near the Frisco railway track Dick has not been in Cincinnati the home of the girl named for 15 years, and at no time during the past year was he any nearer Cincinnati than Decatur. The telegram states that Dick was with the Lewis company two weeks at Cincinnati during the past summer, Letters from the west received by the family account fully for Dick's whereabouts up to about a week before he was found dead The mystery will eventually be cleared up

The Y M C A —What It Is

The Young Mens Christian Association held a conference meeting Next Wednesday last week and the Bible meetings each evening this week These meetings are for men only and are to be held by Mr Wishard State secretary of the Association

From questions asked and statements made by intelligent persons I am led to believe that the work of the Association is not fully understood This must be the reason for making the following explanations First what it is It is a club supported in part by the benevolent people for the benefit of christian young men It is a church neither does it supersede the church Its methods of work are not identified with that of the church It is a benevolent association of christian men for the purpose of making a christian home for young men It is the only place of public resort in the city under christian influences Its purpose is to turn counter to the vicious influences that surround our young men on every hand It is a part of the church None can be active members unless a member of some christian church The Association says to its members

Your first obligation is to your church It is the vestibule to the churches Its prime object is to save young men and to lead them into the church

Is there a place for the Association in the plan for christian work Is there a demand for such special work When we know that there are two women to one man in our churches when we learn that nine tenths of the inmates of our prisons are men—ten young men whose average age is less than thirty years—there would seem to be a reason for special work for the salvation of young men The Association seeks to supplement the work done by the churches It seeks the physical, intellectual moral and spiritual welfare of its members All men of good moral character may become members but those not belonging to any church are classed as associate The gymnasium bathe rooms, sociables classes lectures papers, books, reading room religious meetings are some of the advantages offered young men to induce them to place themselves under christian influences If the Association has not done as much as it should, it is because its work is not fully appreciated by the public If its hands are tied for want of means and for want of workers, of course, the results will fall short of the ideal. In view of these things we invite all christian men to unite with us in saving the young men of this city Come and help us

A Cool Customer.

The Logan House on East Main street had a sensation this morning at four o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shorb were aroused from their sleep by hearing some one in the office where the door opening into the street is left unlocked all night and where a light is kept burning for the convenience of late arrivals. It was supposed that one of the boozy boarders was making a noise in the office, but when the dining room table was heard to move, it was thought best to begin an investigation. Mrs. Shorb got up and went into the office, where she found the clothing of a man placed on two chairs and the office spittoon tipped over, the contents scattered over the floor. Looking into the dining room, she was startled to find a man stretched out on the dining room table, with nothing on but his shirt Quickly Mr Shorb was called to the room, when the stranger was found sitting on the edge of the table looking about coolly and cautioning Mr Shorb to go slow Near the head of table were the hotel dishes and knives and forks, none were disarranged The man was perfectly calm and seemed anxious to prevent a row Finally, after Mrs Shorb had disappeared, the stranger came out into the office, and after he had got on his clothes, Mrs Shorb came upon the scene and gave the intruder a lecture. The chap paid a dollar for damage done in kicking over the spittoon, but offered no explanation for his singular conduct He didn't give his name, but simply walked off after paying the dollar Possibly the visitor, who is thought to be a railroad man, had been out on a spree and had gone into the Shorb hotel, thinking it was his boarding house

The Macon Suicide.

The inquest on the body of Edward Higgins, aged 23 years son of Mr and Mrs Morris Higgins, was held yesterday afternoon by Coroner Perl who got home this morning The jurymen who heard the evidence were James L Hight, Amos Reedy, Jonas Bafford, Nathan A Cross and Elmer C Reedy Deceased had shot himself in the left temple with a 22 calibre rifle, and was found dead in his room by his mother shortly after he went up stairs. Young Higgins was a school teacher, and a member of the Macon Prohibition Invincible Club He fell in love with one of the young ladies, proposed Sunday night and was rejected Ed became despondent and killed himself Mrs Higgins testified that she was satisfied that her son shot himself He left a letter addressed to his mother, in which he no doubt detailed the whole of his trouble, but Mrs Higgins refused to allow anyone to see it Probably it was the request of the suicide that the contents of the letter be not divulged Before going to his room to take his life, Edward called his little brother to him, gave him his knife and kissed him A verdict of suicide was returned by the jury A week ago the deceased visited Decatur and bought a new suit of clother at Ottenheimer's store He was a fine looking young man of good habits

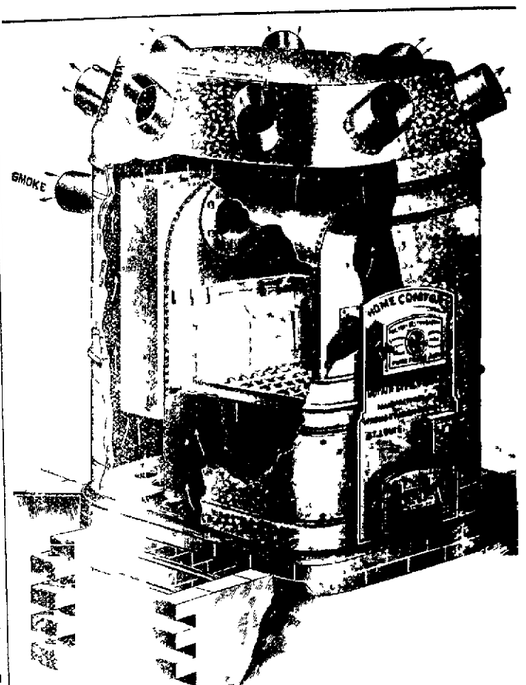
"HOME COMFORT" FURNACES.



NO GAS, No Dust, Wrought Steel, Malleable Iron, Very Little Fuel, No Leaky Joints.

NO ONE can say that the time was not ripe for a new furnace. The days of brittle, porous, cast iron furnaces are numbered. In every branch of manufacture cast iron is being driven out by wrought iron and steel. Every bridge that goes down in a wreck of lives and property is found to have cast iron members. Every bursting cannon which slays its friends rather than its enemies is made of cast iron. Every leaky furnace which poisons a household with its noisome gases is found to be made of the same cheap, unreliable material. Improved methods of manufacture have made steel and iron plate, of first quality, less expensive than cast iron formerly was, and it is plainly in accord with progress in other directions that there should be progress both in design and the material of furnaces for warming our homes, churches and schools.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Mr. Martin Talks of Electric Street Railways and Makes an Offer to the Citizens' Company.

From Tuesday's Daily

The regular meeting of the council last evening was attended by all the members. After disposing of the routine work Mr. E. J. Martin talked a few minutes to the council on the proposed street railway. He assured the members that he was acting in good faith, devoting most of his time to a defense against alleged mud slinging at the enterprise. The proceedings were as follows

MISCELLANEOUS

Mayor Kanan laid before the council a telegram from the Jenney Electric Light company stating that it was impossible for their representative to be present at this meeting and asked an adjournment until some evening later in the week, when one of their men would be here. Evidently the intention of the company is to reach some understanding with the city concerning the electric light dispute. A motion for the council to adjourn until Friday evening was lost. It was suggested that if the company wanted to meet with the council they should make their arrangements to get here on regular meeting nights.

The bill of the Decatur coal company for $270 75 for coal for September and October was reported correct by the committee and ordered paid.

The bill of J. R. Race for $21 75 for a rebate on water rent was referred. It is claimed by Mr. Race that he has been charged for water he never used.

The bill of P. H. Hunt for $277 94 was allowed.

The committee to whom was referred the bid of John Gogarty offering to build plank walks at the rate of 7½ per square foot, recommended its acceptance. The report was adopted.

The petition of the Citizens street railway together with a petition from property owners, asking to extend their street railway from Main street, south on Water street to Wood was referred to the street and alley committee.

ABOUT STREET RAILWAYS

Upon invitation Mr. Martin the representative of the Sprague Electric Motor addressed the council on the proposal of certain Chicago capitalists to put in an electric street railway. Mr. Martin began by giving some charts showing where the Sprague motor was in use on street railways. He said several months ago his company had been solicited to come here by certain capitalists who represented to them that a line was necessary. These capitalists said that the Citizens company would not extend their line unless they secured donations from property owners. When he came Mr. Martin informed the gentleman that his company did not build roads or take stock in them but that in this case they would build the road for $50 000, accepting part of the amount in bonds. On his second visit Mr. Martin said, after the first proposition fell through he became interested in the city and knew of Chicago capitalists who would back the enterprise. He was now laying out a route and securing right of way. The one to the depot by way of Main and Cerro Gordo streets was assured. He said his company had been invited by a representative of the Citizens' company to purchase that line, and in reference to public opinion had but more for the property than it was to its worth to his company. He stated that his good faith in the matter had been impugned by the representatives of the Citizens company and the press and that he had been called a liar. As an evidence of his good faith Mr. Martin suggested that the Citizens street railway company deposit in a local bank $7 000 and he would do likewise. In case his company secured a franchise and did not build the proposed road the $7 000 deposited to be used in embellishing the city park, and in case they did the money deposited by the Citizen company to be used for a like purpose. Mr. Martin asked that either this action or else let the people quit throwing mud at a stranger within the gates of the city. In due time his company expects to come before the council for a franchise.

On motion the council adjourned.

How do you like my new piano, Professor?"
"Beautiful! beautiful! It is simply perfect, so brilliant and at the same time so rich and full and such a singing quality. You have shown good judgment in choosing an Ivers & Pond. they are a first class house, and their pianos are among the very best. I used to think there was but one piano in the world, the ——, but I I am satisfied the Ivers & Pond are just as good, at a much lower price. I have watched their pianos carefully for years, as I have had the opportunity to do in my profession, and find that they are not made simply to sound well at first, but stand use as well as any piano made. You were wise to buy their piano and save money at the same time, Madam."
